Personal Information
Title	Dr.
Full Name	Ryohei Katsuragi
Academic and Professional Credentials	MD
Affiliation	Kitano Hospital, Osaka
Country	Japan
Short Bio
Dr. Ryohei Katsuragi is a dual board-certified breast and plastic surgeon in Japan with clinical and academic expertise in oncoplastic breast surgery and autologous breast reconstruction. His areas of focus include integrating oncologic safety with reconstructive and aesthetic outcomes, particularly through therapeutic mammoplasty (oncoplastic reduction mammoplasty), endoscopic nipple-sparing mastectomy, and endoscope-assisted DIEP flap harvest. His academic interests include minimally invasive breast reconstruction, scar-minimizing surgical approaches, and comprehensive breast care that bridges breast oncology, plastic surgery, and aesthetic surgery. He is actively engaged in clinical research, technical innovation, and the development of patient-centered strategies for breast cancer surgery and reconstruction.
